Simply focus on your career, your family and your free time.
Let us focus on managing your expense reports — start to finish!

Time. Money.

Those are the two most valuable resources you'll ever know.

With more time, you gain more freedom as well as more opportunity to make more, well, money. And with more money, life is simply better.

Escape Expense Reporting gives you more of BOTH!

- MORE TIME to watch your little ones play soccer or baseball
- MORE MONEY to take your spouse out to a romantic dinner
- MORE TIME to follow up on that million-dollar client
- MORE MONEY to actually buy something for yourself
- MORE TIME selling, LESS TIME doing paperwork!

From organizing your travel and business expenses to creating custom expense reports that exceed your manager's expectations to delivering it all in a convenient and timely manner to receiving your reimbursements promptly — it's a seamless system that's making businesspeople nationwide exponentially happier, more productive, and more relaxed.

Ranked as one of the most hated (and therefore most delayed) business activities is the time-consuming, weekend-ruining, paper-shuffling, calculator-crashing, headache-inducing chore of doing expense reports.

You've been there. After a week or two of visiting clients and customers or maybe a conference, you have crumpled, torn, and barely-visible receipts sticking out everywhere. In your pants pockets. In your wallet or purse. In your briefcase. But that's just what's on paper!

There are also several extra expenses floating in your head, like mileage, and transportation, and tips, and such. You feel disorganized. Overwhelmed. So naturally, you put it off.

Before you know it, weeks slip by. Your boss is demanding your expense reports, your spouse is concerned about the money, and all you can think about is the dozens of other priorities you have to take care of.

If only you could easily and permanently Escape Expense Reporting!
You CAN. And it's never been easier.

WHY CHOOSE US PAGE

Streamline ALL your business activities with Escape Expense Reporting

Escape Expense Reporting takes one more task off your to-do list. One more headache off of your mind. Now you no longer have to worry about juggling receipts, remembering expenses, and filling out complicated reports. We do it all for you! Save time, stress less, and get money that's rightfully yours FAST.

Do you spend too much time keeping up with receipts and creating expense reports?

If so, you are engaging in one of the last dinosaur processes in a faster, more efficient business world. While business today is broadband wireless, yesterday's way of expense reporting is AOL-based dial-up.

You wouldn't even dream of conducting business today without a computer. Without email or the Internet. But that's precisely what it's like when you still use yesterday's painstaking expense reporting methods.

One minute you're Skyping clients half way around the world... the next you're shuffling through receipts and Post-It notes. One minute you're conducting a webinar with hundreds of people... the next you're making copies of your hotel expenses.

With Escape Expense Reporting, you maximize the efficiency, accuracy and ease of all your business activities!

Click here to learn how Escape Expense Reporting works.

Sure, our streamlined process makes managing, calculating, and creating expense reports easy on you... but consider EVERYONE who benefits from Escape Expense Reporting.

Your manager — Your BOSS

You've just taken one less worry off of his or her mind. Now your manager knows that your expense reports will be coming in on time, accurately, and adhering to your company's formats.

Your spouse, kids and family

How many times have you been home from work, yet still working on expense reports? Or even when you're not actively doing expense reports, they're on your mind. Now, your time at home can be devoted to those who value your time most. Be the parent and spouse your family looks up to.

Your company's accountants

If there's one thing accountants hate, it's receiving expense reports weeks or months after the fact... or having everyone's expenses land on their desk just before the end of the year. Now, your organization's bean counters will appreciate how quickly and efficiently your expense reports come in.

With Escape Expense Reporting, you get your money back faster AND your sanity back faster. This is one service that benefits you, your entire organization, and even your loved ones.

ABOUT US PAGE

Fulfilling a need demanded by millions of business travelers

Every morning, millions of weary salespeople, consultants, and businesspeople wake up in a lonely hotel room. Stressed. Overwhelmed. And missing their families.

After days or even weeks on the road, they finally come home... but one source of stress and frustration has followed them — their travel expenses and their upcoming expense reports.

That's precisely where I was. As a traveling consultant, the last thing I wanted to do when I finally got home was sift and sort through stacks of meal receipts, flight and hotel receipts, cab receipts, forms, and more. It was a never-ending cycle. Frustrating.

I knew I couldn't be alone. So I asked my colleagues, my friends. I probably talked with hundreds of sales people, consultants, managers, even presidents and CEOs. Everybody did his or her own expense reports. And everybody hated it. I remember talking with one very successful businessman who simply said, "I refuse to do them. The extra time I spend with my family by not doing expense reports is worth more than the money I would be reimbursed."

That's when I knew something had to be done. That's when I decided to address this major business concern.

We created Escape Expense Reporting as a service to help businesspeople. Managing and creating expense reports quickly and professionally and reimbursing them immediately seemed to be a no-brainer service businesspeople would want. And our immense popularity proves it every day.

If you see yourself in a similar scenario as I was in...

If you want to spend more time with your family and less time trudging through expense reports...

If you want to make one major part of your world simpler, easier, and more efficient...

Consider Escape Expense Reporting for a one-time trial or your long-term solution.

HOW IT WORKS PAGE

From stressed and overwhelmed and disorganized... to DONE — All in just one CLICK!

Could your CEO do this?

That was the one question we asked as we created this streamline expense report process. Was it so intuitive, so simple that a CEO could do it. The answer of course: Absolutely!

If only you could receive one receipt that listed all of your business activities — from lunches and dinners to your hotel and flight to your cab fare and miscellaneous expenses. Hardly!

We know you come back with dozens of different receipts, all in different formats. Even some notes scribbled on paper, a few notes in your phone and even mileage reimbursements in your head. No sweat!

Step 1:

You can use your iPhone, Android, BlackBerry, Windows Mobile, SMS, Email, IM, or Voice to capture time, expenses, and receipts. Then our system manages, searches, prints and submits them all in one unified place.

Step 2:

Your credit card transactions are automatically imported, categorized and placed into your expense report. You don't have to manually enter anything!

Step 3:

With just one click, you can submit your expense report. We will route it to the appropriate approver or manager and even send you an email notice with a PDF of your expenses and receipts, as well as a link for approval. Your manager will LOVE simply clicking one button for approval. And YES, because we ask you for the exact format upon our consultation, your manager receives it in the precise format he or she wants.

That's it! Our sophisticated software takes care of all the complex steps. You simply submit and go about your life. Sell MORE, Earn MORE, Live MORE!
